

Keep data exchange safe with Sirius Business Bridge

You need a reliable and secure way of exchanging data with your business partners which gives you absolute certainty over who has access to that data e.g. receiving transactional data from a fund manager for upload into your wealth management system or sending account transactional data to a partner for upload into their own accounting system

- ✓ Secure Web Service based
- ✓ Easy to administer
- ✓ Runs unattended
- ✓ Data fully encrypted
- ✓ Robust processing engine
- ✓ Configurable query templates
- ✓ Flexible post processing options

Address:

Lyra Stables, Wasing Road, Reading RG7 4TG

SIRIUS Business Bridge

The Sirius Business Bridge is a web service based data transmission tool, that allows you to communicate and exchange data with your business partners securely. It requires minimal hands-on processing and runs unattended with full event logging, giving you confidence that your data is being managed correctly.

Secure Retrieval and Transmission of Data

Users authenticated via Web Service API and certificates

Data fully encrypted

Removes concerns about data being tampered with

Robust processing engine

Database staging area enables you to confirm data quality before loading

Post processing engine provides a flexible transform and load capability

Easy to manage

Sirius configurator module allows you to configure permissions and data sources

Maintain a library of your query templates for use with your business partners

Compatible with Microsoft Windows

Sirius Data Collector installed remotely on business partner's system

Reliable data collection

Uses pre-configured query templates to define data extracts

Can collect and/or drop data regularly using scheduling tool

Complete audit trail and event logs for monitoring

Address:

Lyra Stables, Wasing Road, Reading RG7 4TG

